

Radon probability map for the Milford area of Oakland County Light green areas have higher probability of readings exceeding The guidelines, dark green area a lower probability and yellow areas and light yellow areas can go either way. The different shades of yellow and green represent different probability levels